Qualitative and affordable Education to the rural mass is the main trust of the institution. Moreover it is also serving the rural girl students who would have lost the opportunity to go to higher education if our institution did not exist. It is also clear that the number of girl students is almost equal to that of boys. We have a very good library with more than 16000 books along with journals, news papers and also we have a computer lab that helps the students to know the leading trends of the day in IT sector. The institute integrates the ethical part of the education system in which we teachers discipline the students in different situations. The college students come with uniform that also helps the students to forget all the differences of caste, creed, class etc. and come together to learn things without any inhibition.

7.3.2 - Plan of action for the next academic year

We want to attract more number of students. We want to actually increase the GER which is going down due to opening of new colleges around and also due to the current trend of technical and vocational courses. We want the students to learn the importance of the social science and humanities which are largely based on human life.

We want to start a few add-on courses. At least some certificate courses in the next academic year.
